Business Items

- The Board of Directors reviewed a one-year contract extension for Superintendent Shawn Woodward, which would continue a three-year rolling contract. Board members unanimously approved the extension.

District Reports

- Chief Financial Officer Heather Ellingson presented the February 2022 Financial Report. First, the report covered budget expenditures for the the first half of the year, which represented 49.2% of the total budget. CFO Ellingson shared expected revenues for the remainder of the year, including a higher-than-expected apportionment based on additional enrollments and enrollment stabilization dollars from the state. The report finished with budget planning for the the 2022-23 school year, including enrollment and revenue projections, future budget planning and future staffing.
- Superintendent Shawn Woodward presented a report featuring growth and achievement data among elementary students on Measurement of Academic Progress testing. Superintendent Woodward shared a chart with growth and achievement data from a 1st grade classroom to illustrate how the district uses data to help understand the rate of student learning and the effectiveness of the district's teaching staff. The report concluded with a discussion about the district's plans to address mental health concerns through access to mental health therapists and health clinics in schools.
